

Trinity Services Group, Inc. Expands Executive Management Team

Leading Food Service and Commissary Company Appoints Chief Human Resources Officer

Tampa, FL, February 6, 2013 – Trinity Services Group, Inc., a leader in essential support services for secure facilities, announced that Khadeeja Morse has joined the company as Chief Human Resources Officer. Trinity Services Group retained Raines International Inc., one of the country’s leading executive search firms, to conduct the search.

“Khadeeja has the talent and experience Trinity needs as we look to grow in 2013 and beyond,” according to Trinity Services Group Chief Executive Officer Jim Long. “We are a service business and to provide the top-notch customer service our clients expect, we need a Human Resources team that is second to none. Khadeeja will provide that leadership to ensure we achieve our goals.”

As Chief Human Resources Officer, Morse will own all aspects of the human resources function with a particular focus on talent acquisition and performance management as the company continues an aggressive growth plan to expand into new geographical markets and new service areas. Morse brings more than 24 years of human resources experience across a wide variety of industries. She joins the company from Health Care Navigator, LLC, where she served as Senior Vice President of Human Resources responsible for implementing an HR shared services strategy for 5 different operating companies. Prior, Morse served as the Vice President of Human Resources of Horizon Bay Retirement Living, where she was tasked with spearheading the human resources transformation of the organization. Previously, Morse held roles with Cox Communications, United Technologies, and First Data Corporation. Morse holds a lifetime Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) certification from the HR Certification Institute.

“Trinity Services Group is a people business with a strong commitment to exceeding our customer’s expectations,” said Morse. “I’m looking forward to positively contributing by ensuring we have the right tools, talent, training, and resources to enhance and support that strong culture of commitment.”
