

Raines International Inc. Appoints New Managing Director

Shami Anand Leads Firm's Procurement and Supply Chain Practice

New York, NY (PRWEB) February 11, 2014 -- Raines International Inc., one of the country's leading retained executive search firms, recently announced the promotion of Shami Anand to Managing Director.

Ms. Anand has spearheaded the growth of the firm's Procurement and Supply Chain practice in addition to supporting the Finance, General Management, and Human Resources practices. She brings extensive corporate experience including 18 years at PepsiCo in the Finance and Global Procurement organizations, where she most recently served as Vice President, World-Wide Sweeteners and Other Beverage Ingredients. Ms. Anand's procurement leadership experience spans commodities, ingredients, packaging, and indirect categories on a global basis. Her executive search experience includes engagements for senior operating roles, including Chief Procurement Officers, Chief Operating Officers, and their direct reports for Fortune 500, private/family-owned, and private-equity owned companies.

"Shami is an extremely talented executive who works collaboratively with her clients to deliver the highest-quality candidates," said Bruce R. Raines, President and CEO of Raines International. "Her expertise in the areas of Supply Chain and Procurement are exceptional in the executive search industry and support our continued growth as a diversified services firm."
